The image shows a musical score for two staves. The top staff is a treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The bottom staff is a bass clef. The music is written in a style that uses only stems and dots for notes, with no note heads. The notes are placed on the lines and spaces of the staves. The score is divided into two measures by a vertical bar line. The first measure contains a series of notes, mostly on the upper half of the staff, with a few notes on the lower half. The second measure continues the sequence of notes, also primarily on the upper half of the staff. The notation is minimalist, focusing on the vertical placement of notes relative to the staff lines.
